

Inspirational for our young people!

It has been an honour working with the incredible singer and songwriter, Scott Nicol! I contacted Scott to help the senior pupils at Kilmarnock Academy develop their songwriting/composing skills. We had the pleasure of working with Scott for 2 full-day workshops. Scott was a true inspiration and really encouraged our senior pupils to use their musical knowledge and performing skills to create songs based on personal experiences or interests. It was evident throughout that Scott has real passion and enthusiasm for songwriting and really had the young people's best interests at heart. This is a positive and lifelong experience that our pupils will cherish and at Kilmarnock Academy, we are delighted to have started a wonderful connection with Scott for many performances and workshops in the future.

Thank you!
